Doctor's Office Knowledge Base

How do I book an appointment?

I can book that for you right now. Tell me what you'd like to be seen for, and I'll find the next available time.

Can I get a same day appointment?

I can check the next available time right away. If you have urgent symptoms, please say so and I'll make sure our team knows.

Do I need an appointment or can I walk in?

Appointments are recommended so the doctor can give you enough time. I can check availability for you now.

What should I bring to my first visit?

Please bring a photo ID, your insurance card, a list of the medicines you take, and any recent medical records or test results. Please arrive about 15 minutes early to fill in forms.

Do you accept my insurance?

I can't confirm a specific plan over the phone. Please bring your insurance card, and I can ask our team to check your coverage before your visit.

Which insurance plans do you take?

Coverage depends on your exact plan. I can have a member of our team call you back to confirm it before you come in.

Do I need a referral?

That depends on your insurance plan and the type of visit. I can ask our team to check this for you and call you back.

How do I get a prescription refill?

Refill requests are handled by our clinical team. Please have the medicine name and your pharmacy ready, and I'll take a message so they can call you back.

Can I speak to the doctor?

The doctor is usually with patients, so I can't put you through directly. I can take a message and ask the doctor or a nurse to call you back.

How do I get my test results?

Results are shared by our clinical team, and I'm not able to read them out. I can take a message and ask them to contact you.

Can you give me medical advice?

I'm not able to give medical advice. I can book you an appointment or ask a nurse to call you back. If this is an emergency, please call 911.

What should I do in an emergency?

If this is an emergency, please hang up and call 911 or go to your nearest emergency room right away.

What if I have chest pain or trouble breathing?

Those can be serious. Please hang up and call 911 now, or go to the nearest emergency room.

What if I am thinking about harming myself?

I'm sorry you're going through this. Please call or text 988 right now to reach the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline, or call 911 if you are in immediate danger.

What if I need to cancel or reschedule?

No problem. I can reschedule or cancel for you. Please give us as much notice as you can so someone else can use the time.

What is your cancellation policy?

Please give us as much notice as possible if you can't make it. I can cancel or move your appointment for you now.

What if I am running late for my appointment?

Thanks for letting us know. Please call as soon as you can. We'll do our best to see you, but if you're very late we may need to move your visit.

How long does an appointment take?

It depends on the type of visit. I'll tell you the length when we choose the appointment type.

Can I book an appointment for someone else?

Yes. I'll need the patient's name and a phone number we can reach them on.

Can I bring my child or a family member?

Yes, a parent or guardian is welcome to come with a child, and you may bring a family member to support you. Please let our team know if you have any special needs.

Do you see children?

I can ask our team which age groups the doctors see and call you back to confirm.

Can I get my medical records?

Records requests need a signed release form. I can take your details and have our team contact you about how to do it.

Can I get a doctor's note or a form filled in?

Our team can help with that. I'll take your details and ask them to call you back about notes and forms.

Who can help with a question about my bill?

I can't see billing details from here. I can take a message and ask our billing team to call you back.

What payment methods do you accept?

Our team can tell you about co-pays and payment options. I can take a message and have them call you back.

Do I need to fast before a blood test?

Fasting instructions depend on the test. Please follow the instructions on your doctor's or lab's order, and if you're unsure I can ask a nurse to call you.

Do you offer vaccines or flu shots?

I can ask our team which vaccines are available and call you back, or I can book you a visit to discuss it with the doctor.

Do you offer video or telehealth visits?

I'm not sure if your visit can be done by video. I can ask our team and call you back, or book an in-person visit.

Is my information kept private?

Yes. Your information is kept confidential. For your privacy, I can only share appointment details after confirming who is calling.

How do I update my phone number or address?

I can take your new details and ask our team to update your record.

What are the clinic's hours when you are closed?

When the office is closed I can still book an appointment or take a message for our team. If it's urgent, please call 911 or go to the nearest emergency room.

Do I need to prepare for a physical or check up?

Please bring your insurance card, photo ID and a list of your medicines. If your doctor asked you to fast or prepare in another way, please follow that.

Can I see a specialist?

I can ask our team whether we can arrange that and what a referral would involve, and call you back.
